Work while you work,
Play while you play;
One thing each time,
That is the way.

All that you do,
Do with your might;
Things done by halves.
Are not done right.

This is an example of the cursive practice pages, or "slate work" you can find in the McGuffey readers, especially the primer and first reader. Copy these by hand, first in pencil and then go over them in pen. Then copy them and keep the originals for later.

Here is a page I created by using the letter introduction as suggested in the McGuffey's Primer. I call this set "A".

When the stars at set of sun

Watch you from on high,

When the morning has begun,

Think the Lord is nigh.

All you do and all you say,

He can see and hear:

When you work and when you play,

Think the Lord is near.

Next is set "B". I gathered these writing examples by culling the McGuffey readers.

For the word of God is quick and powerful and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Hebrews 4:12

Set "C" is comprised of various scripture passages.
