

American Education

Freedom With Structure Learning Stages

We need to help this child become an adult and realize the need for a savior. He needs to learn to practice self-discipline.

The child is aware of his sinfulness and needs outside discipline.

The age of innocence. In heavenly child-likeness he must understand who is in charge in his life.

3. In the world and not of it:

Slow exposure to the world and its ways; becoming an influence by developing useful knowledge and skills to engage with the seven spheres of influence:

- Religious
- Family
- Government
- Education
- Media
- Arts and Entertainment
- Business

- In-depth studies.
- Honing writing and other communication skills.
- Preparing for ministry and vocation.

2. Introducing God's Truth:

The Creation Account is used as the lens for all other studies.
Sin and forgiveness are understood.
Bible and Bible themes are studied.

- Basic learning tools
- Study of nature and the physical world
- History

1. Foundations laid:

Child can relax and receive from parents.

*Simple attentiveness with consistency can solve most attitude and discipline problems.

- Love
- Acceptance
- Safety
- Establishment of authority and boundaries